

Susan CallisonMember*

East Memphis Office

901-682-1455

scallison@harrishelton.com

Concentration:

- Estate Planning, Probate and Trusts
- Municipal Law
- Taxation

Susan Callison has been practicing law since 1975 and has been with Harris Shelton since July 2008. Her expertise is in the areas of estate planning, administration of trust and estates, and governmental pension plans.

She began her law career as an associate at the former Canada, Russell & Turner law firm, now Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs, where she worked for three years before earning her master's degree in taxation. Thereafter, she joined The Bogatin Law Firm, where she practiced for 29 years.

Around tax season, you can find Ms. Callison working with the AARP Foundation as a volunteer tax return preparer. She is a native of Memphis and resides in Midtown. In her free time, she enjoys reading, duplicate bridge and classical music.

Professional Honors and Activities

- American Bar Association, member
- Best Lawyers, Trusts and Estates
- Florida Bar, member
- Memphis Bar Association, member
- Tennessee Bar Association, member
- Tennessee Bar Foundation, fellow
- Tennessee Law Review
- AVVO rating – Very Good
- Martindale Hubbell rating – AV[®] Preeminent[™]

Bar Admission

- Tennessee, 1975
- Florida, 1979

Education

- The University of Florida, LL.M. in taxation, 1979
- The University of Tennessee, J.D., 1974
- Emory University, B.A., 1965