

Tricia M.Y. Tweel

Associate

East Memphis Office

Office: 901-682-1455

Direct: 901-435-0303

ttweel@harrishelton.com

Concentration:

- Estate Planning, Probate and Trusts
- Real Estate Law

Tricia M.Y. Tweel concentrates her practice in a variety of areas. Her experience in estate planning includes living wills, last will and testaments, and powers of attorneys for finances and health care. Her experience with trusts includes creation, modification and termination under the Tennessee Uniform Trust Code. In addition, she practices probate administration in the areas of decedent's estates, conservatorships of disabled adults' persons and/or estates, guardianships of minor's estates, and residential real estate.

Professional Honors and Activities

- Association for Women Attorneys, member
- Memphis Bar Association, member
 - Probate and Estate Planning section, vice chair, 2013
- Tennessee Bar Association, member

Published Works

- "Note, Conservatorship Proceedings and Due Process: Protecting the Elderly in Tennessee," 36 The University of Memphis Law Review 491 (2006).

Clerkships

- Honorable Alan E. Glenn
Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals, 2005-2006

Education

- The University of Memphis, J.D., 2005
- The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, M.A. in sociology, 1998
- East Tennessee State University, B.S in criminal justice, 1992

Bar Admission

- Tennessee, 2005